PAID SEARCH ADVERTISING

We know it's competitive out there. That's why we use a data-driven approach mastered by actual humans that have a vested interest in making sure your campaigns perform at the lowest possible cost per click. No empty promises, only real results you can hold us accountable for. Fox Dealer uses a proprietary tool that blends Google Analytics and AdWords to provide automated recommendations on bid adjustments and optimizations (based on the KPI measurements above) and segments by geography.

DISPLAY & RETARGETING ADVERTISING

Customized display ads with a punch. Showcase your best offers with geo-targeted offers proven to increase engagement rates with elite visual impact. Our in-house designers craft banners to match the personality of the site, highlight the vehicles you care most about and ensure the highest conversion.

SOCIAL MEDIA ADS

Let Fox's social media experts craft a customized advertising plan to fit your business needs, utilizing the most effective tactic for your objectives. From Dynamic Inventory Lead Ads, Reels or TikTok, Fox delivers the right creative to the right audience, and ultimately, more sales and service customers to your door.

MOBILE ADVERTISING

Your vehicles in the palm of their hands. Mobile ads are available on all devices and across all environments. Elevate your results by Geo-fencing areas, competing dealerships, or specific event locations. Geo-fenced data can pinpoint users precisely based on WiFi, cell tower signals, GPS coordinates, and mobile app activity. Hone your mobile targeting further with all of the data available in desktop campaigns.

VIDEO ADVERTISING

Fox Dealer video campaigns are designed to enhance and expand your branding and conversion efforts across multiple video channels, including re-targeting, in-market and affinity audiences to maximize your reach and creative built in-house to reduce your cost.

GOOGLE LOOKER STUDIO REPORTING

Empowering Your Dealership with More Data than the Other Guys. Fox's Data Studio Reporting features real-time data powered by APIs. Most providers only give impressions, clicks and page views. At Fox, we go further and report on how many clicks we got you and how many of those clicks were converted into phone calls and leads. That means we operate of the dollar amount of your average cost per customer contact, not only cost per click. Our monthly reviews take a consultative approach where we review tangibles and may discuss next steps and optimizations.

TECHNOLOGY + PEOPLE = THE BEST RESULTS

Fox insists on a concierge approach, with real people managing your campaigns rather than relying solely on an automated bidding system. Our director level staff personally monitors and manages each dealer's campaign on a day to day basis with the goal of making your dealership more competitive and your spend more efficient. Your dedicated account manager ensures that changes are implemented quickly and that your advertising gets the hands on attention it deserves.

For us, it's about transparency and providing you with custom campaigns that convert at the highest rate possible. Our SEM campaigns are more customized than the competition.
